SWEET WORDS OF WISDOM

EAT HONEY, MY SON, FOR IT IS GOOD;

HONEY FROM THE COMB IS SWEET TO YOUR TASTE.

KNOW ALSO THAT WISDOM IS LIKE HONEY FOR YOU: IF YOU FIND IT, THERE IS A FUTURE HOPE FOR YOU, AND YOUR HOPE WILL NOT BE CUT OFF. - PROVERBS 24:13-14

In the book of Proverbs, Solomon draws a powerful analogy between honey and wisdom, suggesting that just as honey nourishes us physically, wisdom enriches our lives spiritually and mentally. If you ever tried to extract honey from a honeycomb, you probably ended up with a mouthful of wax, reminding you that the sweetness of honey comes with challenges. Similarly, the pursuit of wisdom requires sifting through trials and errors, and sometimes enduring hard life lessons.

But where can we look to find wisdom? Wisdom is a gift from God that can be sought in several ways: asking God for it through prayer, reading the Scriptures, and being attentive to the guidance of the Holy Spirit. By taking God's word to heart, we can experience a profound transformation in our relationship with Him, our understanding of ourselves, and our interactions with others.

*GET ALL THE ADVICE AND INSTRUCTION YOU CAN,
SO YOU WILL BE WISE THE REST OF YOUR LIFE. - PROVERBS 19:20*

A LETTER FROM PASTOR MARK WILLIAMS

Dear Messiah Family,

As we head into the fall, I am excited and proud to be the pastor here at Messiah Church of York. Our family is enjoying the opportunity to get to know all of you and be a part of this church family.

As we look forward, I want to encourage us all to believe by faith that God wants to do amazing things among us here at Messiah. I want us to have high expectations for what we believe God can and will do here and to not be surprised when He acts according to who the Bible says He is.

I am reminded of the lame beggar in Acts 3 who encounters Peter and John near the temple gate called Beautiful. Begging for money, he received far more than he ever dreamed when he is healed in the name of Jesus. He leaps to his feet and begins to run through the temple courts jumping and shouting to the amazement of all who are there. Peter takes this opportunity to address the crowd...

While the man held on to Peter and John, all the people were astonished and came running to them in the place called Solomon's Colonnade. When Peter saw this, he said to them: "Fellow Israelites, why does this surprise you? Why do you stare at us as if by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk? The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His servant Jesus. Acts 3:11-13 NIV

I am struck by the question of Peter, "why does this surprise you?" Peter reminds the people that the God who worked in powerful ways in the past was still working and showing His power through the resurrection of Jesus. God is a healer, and they should expect him to heal.

This is a question we need to consider in our own lives.

What do we expect God to do each week at Messiah?

Are we surprised when people surrender their hearts and lives to Jesus?

Are we surprised when new people, especially young families, come?

Are we surprised when people are excited and passionate about worship?

Are we surprised when God heals, God restores, God forgives, or when God does the unexpected?

Let's commit to expect God to work each and every day powerfully among us, believing that there is nothing that our God can't do!

Fall Sermon Series

Nehemiah-Rebuild. Restore. Revive.
September 8th-November 24th

Nehemiah teaches us how much we can accomplish when we align ourselves with the will and plan of God. Nehemiah and his followers do what seems to be the impossible because they are doing what God has called them to do. You don't have to rebuild a wall to do the will of God. Join us this fall as we discover the man and the ministry of Nehemiah in this verse-by-verse study of the book of that bears his name.

MESSIAH'S DISCIPLES

Evan Patrizio

Getting to know Evan better...

Evan is a 13-year-old student attending the West York Area School District, where he is currently in the 8th grade. Among his various subjects, English Language Arts stands out as his favorite. He finds it particularly engaging because it challenges him to push his limits and strive for excellence.

1) What do you want to see God do in your life this coming year?

Help me become the most successful I can be.

2) It has been a while since we've checked in with you, what have you been up to lately?

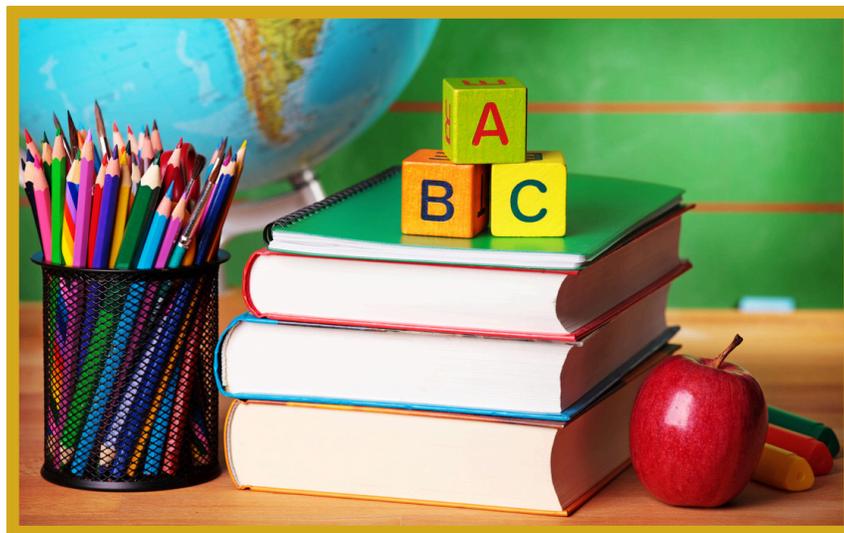

I went to the University of Michigan for gymnastics camp over the summer and I have been putting in a lot of hours at the gym practicing to make sure I do well at competitions. Before the Olympics, I met some of the gymnasts so it was really cool to watch this year.

3) Do you still play an instrument?

I play the Clarinet in regular band and the Alto Saxophone for Jazz band.

4) Could you tell me something about yourself most people would not know?

I'm actually very competitive with video games.

BACK TO SCHOOL...BACK TO YOU

BY SHEILA RHODES
WWW.JESUSGLITTER.COM

As summer begins to wind down and vacations come to an end, there is something else which happens. The kids go back to school! Along with going back to school comes the need for a normal routine, so that everyone can function better and thrive every day. In the same way that we want our children to do well, God wants each of us to flourish and do well. Although my days of getting a child ready to go to school are long gone, I still use these guidelines in my own life to keep the balance I need without feeling overwhelmed. Setting a routine for yourself like you do for your children can help avoid stress and meltdowns, and help you as well as your kids get back on schedule.

1. Pray First! Every day will have its own struggles, but I strongly suggest to take the first five minutes of the day and pray. Many times in our hurry to get out of bed to start our day we can neglect one of the most important things we can do for ourselves and others, which is to pray. It is also important to remember that every day we enter a world which does not want us to flourish, but to fail. Your first conversation of the day should always be the most important. I realize for some this may be difficult, but I want to encourage you to make the effort because when we are faithful and obedient to God the reward for our soul is rich. You can set your alarm the night before, and it will wake you up with music of your choice and a short devotional. It is a great way to begin your day!

2. Feed Yourself! I have to be honest and share that I don't always wake up hungry, but I know if I don't eat something by 10:00 AM I can get ugly! In our quest to get out the door after feeding everyone else, we forget to feed ourselves. This also happens in our spiritual life. If we do not feed ourselves with God's Word or have His influence in our daily lives, our souls begin to break down just like our physical bodies do when we don't eat. When we are weak we have no power to fight against those things which can cause us physical, emotional and more importantly spiritual sickness. In order to stay healthy we need to supply ourselves with the nutrients necessary to guard our heart, mind and soul. Feeding ourselves on the Word of God helps us to sustain a healthy relationship with God and a better attitude towards others.

Jared Hartman

3. Work Hard! Whether we work in the home or outside it, we work hard to accomplish our goals and tasks. The clock tends to be our biggest enemy as we try to get as much done as we possibly can throughout the day. It is important to work hard no matter where God has placed you. A good work ethic is a great characteristic to have. It is important to demonstrate this valuable lesson to our children and it is a requirement of God to always try do our best because the world is watching us. Just as you want your children to succeed and get good grades by working hard, God wants to see you succeed in the areas of your life in which He has called you to serve. I have always found it rewarding to know I have put in a good day's work, not just for myself, but because I know it honors God.

4. Play Harder! What kid doesn't love to play? I loved recess as a kid. The minute lunch was over and the whistle blew to go outside, I was there. The importance of play as a child and as an adult are very similar. Don't we all love to spend some time enjoying the things God has given us to delight in? Set a time for yourself to stop working for a couple of hours, or occasionally for a day. I know there are calls to make, emails to write, kids to put to bed, lunches to pack, clothes to fold and the list goes on, but take time to play. Enjoy your time with those you love. Read a book, talk to a friend, cuddle with your kids, take a walk and breathe. I have never heard anyone wish they had worked longer and played less, but I have heard many regrets from people who wish they could have learned how to balance out their work with some playtime. Work and play are both part of the God balance in our everyday life, and it's important to do both well.

5. Get Some Rest! Summer nights are made to enjoy, and I love sitting around the fire pit or just listening to the sounds of summer until late at night – that is, until I have to get up early the next morning. I am never productive when I am tired. I'm sure we have all incurred the wrath when our children are over tired, and we have made others suffer when we are over tired. It is important to set boundaries and bedtimes to ensure we have the ability to do the tasks which are required of us each day. If we start our day tired it never gets better. Caffeine is only a temporary fix to what can become a permanent problem of exhaustion. Sleep is our reset button to quit thinking about today's problems, trust God with our circumstances, and allow Him to work. Rest is essential to well-being, not only for ourselves, but for our household. We juggle many responsibilities. How well we can juggle is dependent on our mindset, and our mindset suffers greatly when we are exhausted. In order to be able to fight the battles of the day we MUST rest properly, so that we can thwart the attacks of the enemy and rest in the promises of God!

My prayer is you will find these five tips to be helpful and encouraging as you prepare for a new season. I wish I could say I am perfect at all of them, but I am not. I have learned that by keeping this list beside my bed it allows me to stay focused and keeps my priorities in line. If you find yourself at the end of the day saying, "I really blew it today!" remember this – every day is a new day and you get the opportunity to start over because God is faithful and He loves you!

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.
-Lamentations 3:22-23 (ESV)

Getting to know Jared better...

Jared, 31, is a graduate of Northeastern High School and Pennsylvania College of Technology, where he earned two associate degrees in Applied Science, specializing in Building & Landscape/Horticultural Technologies. He currently works for the Manchester Township Public Works Department and serves as VP of the Messiah AdBoard, bringing his skills and knowledge to support his community. He and his wife Abigail have been happily married for ten years and are the loving parents of two sons, Emmett and Fitz.

1) What is your favorite gift or talent and how can you use it to bring glory to God?

Some of the gifts I have been awarded in life are the ability to learn, teach and lead. With these gifts I can live with an Iron Sharpens Iron mentality to help myself and others grow in the character of Christ.

2) Could you tell me something about yourself most people would not know?

I enjoy the outdoors and have a passion for conservation of all things provided by the land we walk on.

3) Is there anything specific you are looking forward to in the upcoming year?

Simply enjoying the presence of family & friends and continuing the adventures of life.

MESSIAH'S MISSIONS

SPECIAL MUSIC IN AUGUST

Sayings of the Wise (Precepts of the Sages)

Pay attention and turn your ear to the sayings of the wise;
apply your heart to what I teach,
for it is pleasing when you keep them in your heart and have all of them ready on your lips.
So that your trust may be in the Lord,
I teach you today, even you.
Have I not written thirty sayings for you,
sayings of counsel and knowledge,
teaching you to be honest and to speak the truth,
so that you bring back truthful reports to those you serve?

BOOK OF THE MONTH

DO YOU ENJOY READING?

HERE'S A SUGGESTION FOR THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER.

In Search of Wisdom

LIFE-CHANGING TRUTHS IN THE BOOK OF PROVERBS
BY JOYCE MEYER

#1 New York Times bestselling author and Bible teacher Joyce Meyer takes us on a journey through the wisdom of Proverbs that leaves us transformed and prepared to face daily choices and challenges.

The book of Proverbs is a treasure trove of spiritual and practical wisdom that equips us to live our best lives. Knowledge is important, but if it isn't converted into action, it fails to create transformational change in our lives. It is important to gain a thoughtful and practical understanding of the seven foundational principles in the book of Proverbs: wisdom, understanding, prudence, knowledge, discretion, discernment, and fear of the Lord.

If we desire to possess these qualities, we must make a commitment to a deeper understanding and implementation of these values in our daily lives.

Featuring inspiring questions to promote thoughtful reflection, In Search of Wisdom will enlighten you with God's understanding and teach you the foundational principles and secure God's help in practicing them.

There are several copies available in the Narthex for you to borrow, read, and return to the table when finished for others to enjoy.

MAY MISSION OUTREACH YORK BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION

Wish List - Canned Beans

Thanks to your kindness, we donated over 200 cans of beans to their kids' backpack program, making a difference for local families in need. A special thank you goes to Carleen Farabaugh, the Executive Director, for visiting Messiah and sharing insights about this incredible organization and how they impact the York community.

JUNE MISSION OUTREACH BELL SOCIALIZATION SERVICES

Wish List - Personal Hygiene Items

This wonderful organization makes a significant impact in the daily lives of individuals with mental, intellectual, and economic disabilities. Pictured here are Melissa Manning, Janel Fox, and Averie Clark from Bell Socialization Services.

Dear friends at Messiah Church of York,

We would be remiss if we did not send you a heartfelt Thank You for your very generous donation of items which we received last month! In fact, there were so many items, that it necessitated two different trips to deliver!

We appreciate all the personal hygiene items which were gathered during the month of June as part of your Messiah's Missions Outreach.

Thanks so much for your support of our agency and the folks who receive services, and know that your generosity has indeed made a difference in the lives of others.

Thanks again for thinking of Bell - and for helping to keep our folks supplied with these essential items.

We hope you all are staying cool in this exceptionally hot weather.

Thank you for keeping us in your hearts and actions!

With much gratitude, Janel Fox

JULY MISSION OUTREACH COVER SIX CANINES

Wish List - Dog Treats, Toys, Ropes, Tennis Balls & Flat Dog Mats

Thank you to Cover Six Canines, Ed Kohr, the trainers, handlers, and of course, the adorable dogs, for visiting our congregation and youth to share about their amazing organization. Their mission is to assist Veterans and First Responders in securing and training service dogs free of charge. Each dog is trained to cater to their handler's specific needs, embodying their motto "Using four paws to reach one heart."

A big thank you to our congregation for your generous donations. These contributions were delivered to a grateful staff, and they will go a long way in supporting this canine ministry. Your commitment to serving our Veterans and First Responders is deeply appreciated.

BIBLE IN A YEAR - ABOUT THE BOOKS

Isaiah prophesied under the reign of four Judean kings: Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah. He most likely met his death under a fifth, the evil King Manasseh. Many scholars believe the prophet referred to in Hebrews 11:37 is Isaiah. It says that one of the prophets was sawn in two. The book is loaded with prophecy that closely matches the life of Jesus, and it has been used as a source of proof of His Messiahship.

Romans – Paul was writing to Christians living in Rome. Nero was emperor. He did dastardly things to Christians, but he hadn't started yet. It was a time of peace. However, Paul knew he was writing to city people who can be really different from each other. Tough sailors, well-traveled tradesmen, wealthy former idolaters, and slaves were all part of the new church in Rome.

In Chapters 1-8, Paul explains the foundations of the Christian faith. This is why the book is quoted so often in salvation messages. In Chapters 9-11, he explains how people can receive a relationship with God. In Chapters 12-16, Paul explains how to use this information to live a godly life.

Ephesians – Paul visited Ephesus twice. The second time, a rich silversmith, Demetrius, found his business suffering greatly because people were converting to Christianity. He built silver idols, and suddenly there wasn't as much demand. There was a near-riot that led Paul to leave Ephesus, but only after he had done much to stabilize and grow the Christian community there. He wrote this letter while in prison in Rome to encourage them.
